

BOTANICAL ART IN FIJI

Botanical Painting & Sketching in Paradise with Leonie Norton

11—18 July 2020

A fantastic Week of intensive tuition with renowned artist and popular international tutor Leonie Norton, who is one Australia's most experienced and highly qualified botanical artists. There will also be optional sketching opportunities.

Accommodation

Stay in the superb 5 star Resort and Spa—KORO SUN, situated in the hidden paradise of Savusavu on Vanua Levu, Fiji's second latest island and a 50-minute flight from Nadi. This resort will surpass all your expectations with superb accommodation, gourmet meals and wonderful local hospitality.

Having taught workshops in Savusavu for over twelve years, Leonie has excellent local knowledge and along with the friendly staff, will ensure your stay is very special.

The Botanical Art Workshop

The mornings are devoted to botanical art where you choose the subject you will be painting for the week, sourced from the resort's extensive tropical gardens. There is daily individual tuition and group demonstrations.

The topics will cover composition, tone, highlights and shadows, drawing and watercolour techniques, how to create a three-dimensional illusion in your painting and much more.

Sketching: Record some of your memories and experiences in a sketchbook to take home.
