

Botanical Art in Fiji

23-30 September 2022

A fantastic week of intensive tuition at the beautiful Koro Sun Resort on Vanua Levu, Fiji's second largest island, and one of Fiji's hidden secrets. The mornings are spent painting the colourful and exotic Fijian flora, sourced from the resort and local gardens. Explore new techniques in both drawing and watercolour, and finish your week with a beautiful painting to remember your visit.

All skill levels are welcome and no prior knowledge is assumed. Non painting partners and friends are also welcome and can join in all activities and excursions.

There is also time to relax, snorkel, swim or do nothing at all in your free time. The afternoons are for sightseeing and relaxation. Enjoy a meke of traditional dancing and singing, a walk through the rainforest, and much more.
